THE SPELL IS CAST

The witch of the Past, the Present, and the Future, prevails over all. She guides us with her magic spells and potions of learning and wisdom. She stirs together the ingredients for a memorable past, a profitable present, and a captivating future. She mixes into her brew of education the necessities to enrich life. She encourages us on to greater endeavor by casting over us spells of understanding and tolerance. Under her guidance we become the leaders and hope of tomorrow.

Principal

Dr. John Reed Call

As a component essential to the overall coordination of our student body, Dr. John Reed Call provided ambitious support and supervision to the various activities of the school year.

We looked up to him as a congenial friend and leader, and appreciated his conscientious interest in us. He encouraged us to better ourselves by doing well academically and enjoying our extra-curricular activities.

He urged us on with a memorable challenge — "Reach for a star, Granger — your're one of the few tall enough."

Assistant Principal

Mr. Burton, our Assistant Principal, serves Granger High School in multi-capacities. He is in charge of pupil accounting, text books, and disciplinary action in some cases. He deserves commendation for the hard work he put forth in making this year our "Lucky 7th."

Counselors

Organization was blended into the spell through the expert guidance and wisdom of our counselors. These devoted advisors gave cordial interest to the problems of each student. By their inspired guidance, these men and women have aided the students in realizing how their ambitions and goals can be fulfilled.

Office Staff

Serving every student at Granger, the office is probably the best-known place in the entire school. Every day, each student partakes of services provided by the competent staff: buying supplies, using the library, and checking up on attendance problems. The purpose of the staff, to serve students and faculty, is carried out through the diligent work of these fine ladies.

Witch and warlock, shadows lurking Oh, this treacherous road of working.

P.T.A.

Under the leadership of Mrs. Delbert Wilden, P.T.A. President, the parents and teachers worked to coordinate the magic of home with school, thus simplifying education. They sponsored many activities during the year to bring parents and teachers closer together in the process of learning.

Left to Right, Row One: Mrs. Delbert Willden, P.T.A. President; Dr. John Reed Call, Principal. Row Two: Mrs. Melvin M. Hall, Treasurer; Mrs. S. R. Wood, Secretary. Not Pictured: Mrs. Ronald Whittle, First Vice President.

These magical masters of cleanliness worked diligently to promote Granger in the eyes of all visitors. The building of Granger High served as a wholesome welcome mat to students and visitors alike. The shining halls served as an essential factor for good health and attitudes of young minds.

STUDENT GOVERNMENT

An eternity ago this castle towered in darkness, its massive walls protecting it from all invasion.

Dark witches dwelled within its walls and cast spells of ignorance and superstition.

Then there came the dawn of a glorious morning, when rays of enlightenment beat upon the castle's walls, causing them to crumble.

A good sorcerer, Knowledge, laid solid blocks of purpose, wisdom, independence and concern one upon another erecting new walls which towered upward to glorious heights of achievement.

An unfaltering body of leadership was chosen to contribute direction and control to the castle and it is called Student Government.

Campus

When it's darkest, man sees the stars. These dazzling stars were the glint of knowledge caught by students in their search for learning. Throughout Granger's halls and classrooms, the spirit of education was ever present. In her glorious seventh year, Granger reigned high among the other schools in the valley.

President

Strength. Loyalty. Eagerness. These are a few of the many ingredients added to the year by our President, Greg Larson. His outstanding leadership was said to have been a mainstay in our administration. Greg represented our school not only as a fine leader, but also as a great athlete. His ability on the football field was a credit to all. His willingness to work with others to make this the best year possible was also a tribute to him. Greg's guidance was outstanding, and his attempt at raising our standards was an accomplishment not only to himself, but also to his school. The student body of Granger High School will profit by the works of this very fine President.

Dear Tracy,
 I've surely enjoyed your sweet personality.
 You've really shown an interest in Grange and in the students. May you always find happiness. Love,

Harrison, J. Winrow, D. Cassidy, L. Boehm, L. Hinman, G. Williams.

This outstanding group of students used their magical powers of ability and leadership to help guide our school this year. Each member was a leader working with the others to unite Granger as a whole. They strived diligently to keep Granger on top and keep her standards high.

Round Table

Organization and determination were unquestionably the magical ingredients which contributed to the Round Table's outstanding success. Through their combined efforts, this select group maintained direction and control by coordinating school activities and making policy decisions concerning student government. They unfalteringly achieved leadership, a quality which has truly become a characteristic of Granger.

Girls' Teen Association

Adding the magic element of enthusiasm to campus life, the Girls' Teen Association organized and carried out activities which united the girls of Granger in friendship and understanding. Among these, Big and Little Sister Day was one of the most colorful. Armed with baby bottles and pacifiers, the seniors entertained and tended their "little sisters." In all, the organization provided high goals and ideals as well as fun and excitement for everyone.

Representing leadership at Granger, the Boys' Teen Association sought to develop high standards within its boys. Those under its influence improved their moral and social behavior. The club sponsored many and varied activities. Among these were an assembly, Sir Lancer Day, a Father and Son Banquet, and a futile fuzz pushing race. With an organization such as this, feelings of brotherhood were justly rewarded.

Time has sealed the trunk which lies forgotten;

Time has mellowed its wood and tarnished its brass trim.

Time has concealed it with discarded costumes, with unwanted props;

But,

Time cannot destroy its contents.

Time cannot muffle
the spontaneous laughter,
the exhilarating applause, the strains of the Alma Mater.

Time presses forward; but,
Time cannot destroy memories that

The polished voices of our Junior Choir combined in harmony to add the final touch to the Junior Assembly. Guided by their skillful director, Norman Wendel, these talented students labored diligently to perfect and unify their voices.

Junior Choir

Lynda Beautiful at its best!!

Boys' Glee

The Boys' and Girls' Glee strove to gain a deeper appreciation of music and develop their voices for more advanced choruses next year.

Decisive rhythm and unification of tones were some of the qualities these students worked to improve.

Inner conflict, extreme tension, bracing humor, gentle reverence of a first love — all emotions poured forth from the stage and engulfed the audience of "The Diary of Anne Frank," the story of a young girl's tragic death.

The problems of Anti-Semitism were exposed and appreciated as members of the community viewed a fine dramatization of this great literary classic.

Lancer Ballade

This year Granger's annual Lancer Ballade took the form of the Broadway play, "Finian's Rainbow." From Glocca Morra to the imaginary state of Missitucky, this tale of a crock of gold, a leprechaun and an old Irish gentleman was unfolded in a whirl of myth, merriment, and magic. Finian's journey from the misty isle of Ireland to his escapades with Og, the leprechaun, kept the audience in anticipation and amusement. Dancers dressed in an array of colorful costumes added a touch of enchantment to this Irish folk tale.

Remember this!
Y. L. (L. L. L.)

*Dear Tracy,
 This is certainly a wonderful year to remember.
 Thank you for your friendship -
 I loved every minute of it! May you always have success in life - and I hope I see you sometime! Maybe in heaven (if I make it)!

Assemblies

The curtains slowly open and the house-lights dim. An air of excitement is felt as each Lancer assembly unfolds in an array of entertainment. Who can forget the fun of the class presentations, the spirit that came from Pep Assemblies, and the humor of Hello Dolly? Many fond memories will linger from the assemblies presented at Granger.

Homecoming

Hello Dolly!
I know this isn't on the level,
Why don't you fakes go to the devil?

Senior Dance

The "Twelve Days of Christmas," theme of the dance. Brought delight to your eyes at one single glance. The decorations began with a partridge at the door . . . To the twelve pipers piping in the center of the floor. A folk dancing group with their feet gayly prancing, Completed the night filled with fun and romancing.

Caught up in the festive mood set by the gay gold and brown autumn colors, Granger High couples danced away the night. A friendly scarecrow surrounded by pumpkins and cornstalks helped to carry out the theme of "Golden Harvest."

Harvest Ball

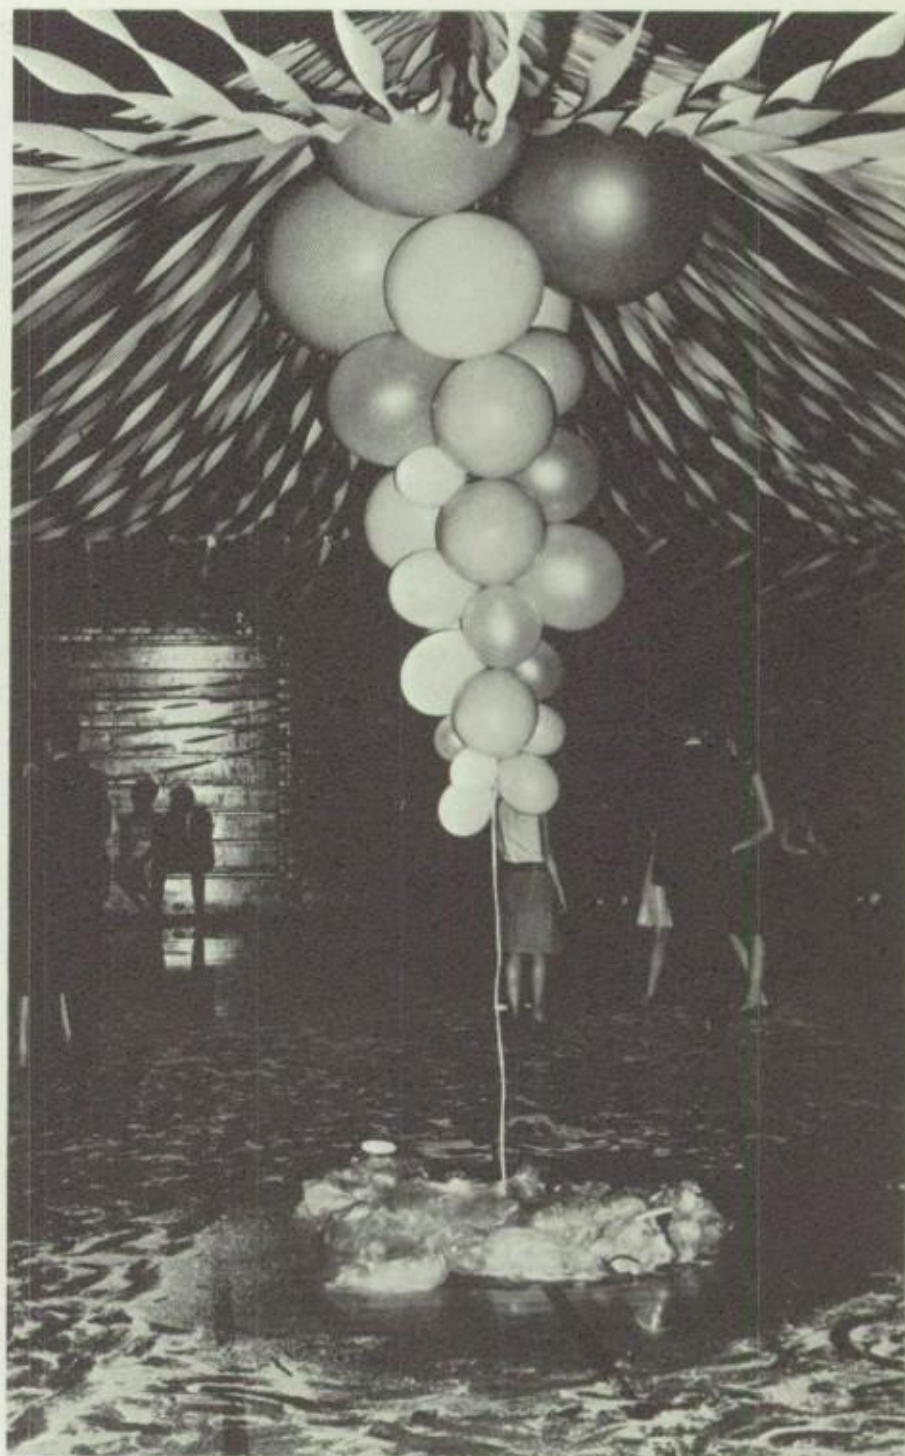

Sophomore Ball

The talent of the Sophomore class was illustrated by their majestic efforts in presenting their first dance, "June in January." A glimpse of the forthcoming summer was portrayed in gay colored scenes. Reigning over the dance as Queen was Wendy Hardman, and as King, Rex Lundgren.

Amid the enchanting memories of bygone years, Granger High students and alumni danced to the mystic sounds of the Jack Turner orchestra. Elegant Vicki Tolman reigned over the festive Homecoming activities, attended by Julie Lelis and Sandi Nelson.

Homecoming Dance

Football Dance

The football dance brought back the breathtaking memories of sensational games played by our mighty Lancer team. Honored at the dance were Gary Gath-erum, "Mr. Backfield," and Greg Larson, "Mr. Linesman." The gymnasium was transformed into a football field, with the players' names lining the walls.

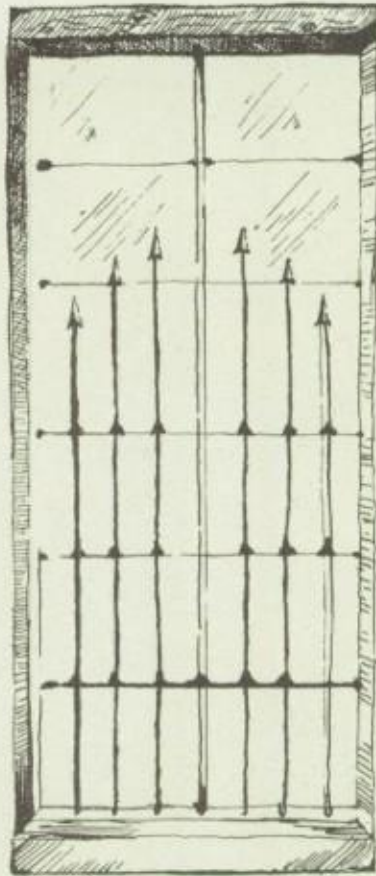

Girls' Teen Dance

The royal ladies of the Lancer Kingdom proudly escorted their noble Knights, Squires, and Pages into a realm of mystic enchantment. Adding romance to the occasion, Mr. Cupid was the center of attraction while helping to carry out the theme, "Our Hearts Are Young."

Dear Tracy,
Gee, I can remember when we used to sit together when we were in the sixth grade. Now its six years later.
I hope I have the chance to keep your friendship for another six years and another and another. Be Good and

Junior Prom

You drifted through the veil of mist to enter an island of romance and enchantment. Bali Hai beckoned you to a world of dreams and fantasy. The exotic decorations lured your imagination to venture into the unreal. The sparkling fountains, glittering palm trees, and the blossoming petals of "her majesty's" throne were among the lasting memories of this cherished night.

Queens

Every girl dreams of one day reigning over a dance as Queen. These lovely girls, like Cinderella, had their fondest dreams come true for that one special night. Unlike Cinderella however, they had no magical Fairy Godmother to help them. They earned the crown they wore and the glorious title of Queen by having charm, poise, and personality. They found their glass slippers, and with them, some very precious memories that will not die at midnight, but will linger throughout the years.

This is a Valentine?

Hasn't anyone seen a bikini before?

To present a top yearbook to the student body, this year's Shield staff strove to bring back the fond memories of the year through copy, art work, and pictures. Mixing witches spells, chants, and brews, they formed an enticing theme.

This close knit group combined co-operation and hard work to provide an excellent record of the school year.

Writing, planning, directing and costuming were just a few of the things our assemblies class was seen doing this year. These talented and hard-working Lancers wrote our traveling assembly and directed the Lancer Ballade. Each member was chosen because of specific talents and abilities. These qualities were demonstrated by the excellent assemblies that were produced this year.

"Wasn't she supposed to dress before she went on?"

Ushers Club

Clad in red and white checked shirts worn under sky blue sweater vests, the members of the Ushers Club were seen sauntering down the aisles of the auditorium during assemblies throughout the year. Due to their efforts, discipline and control were maintained. Our gratitude should be conferred upon them for the help they contributed in maintaining the high standards characteristic of Granger High.

F.T.A.

In our complex world of advancing technology, a greater emphasis is continually being placed on education. This year, the Future Teachers of America served as partial insurance that the ever increasing need for educators will be filled. Directed by Mr. Maeser, sponsor; and Marilyn Mott, president; the club contributed encouragement to those students who plan to enter into the field of education.

The Boosters Club, unique in the fact that it is the only new club at Granger this year, took its place among the throng of organizations. Sponsored by the student body officers, the club supported Granger's activities and promoted school spirit. Through the united efforts of its members, the club succeeded in boosting Granger to triumph and success.

Symphony Sub Debs

Besides attending the Utah Symphony on a regular basis, the Symphony Squires did much to bring culture to Granger. Along with their feminine counterparts, this club established unity in the enjoyment of classical music. Mr. Wendel, their sponsor, arranged many activities for this organization throughout the year.

The Symphony Sub Debs gained enrichment throughout the year. They attended many performances of the Utah Symphony, and learned to appreciate all types of music. Headed by Christine Albrechtsen, and Mr. Chatelain and Miss Hiltabedel as sponsors, the Sub Debs gained new friendships and knowledge.

Latin Club

The dashing, enthusiastic, popular, Mr. Edward Campos, led and sponsored the Spanish Club in his very energetic way. This lively group set the pace toward knowledge and fun with a shower of taco-eating activities. Jean Shelby presided as president, with Pam Smith as vice-president.

Left to Right, Row One: Mr. Campos, sponsor, A. Granger, C. Fast, T. Hall, W. DiSanti, C. Bourell, L. Shelby, L. Shaffer, P. Smith, C. Allen, S. King, T. Bonino, S. Rasmussen. Row Two: C. Springe, D. Stephens, L. Jones, L. Jorgen-

The plucky and spirited students of the Latin Club, sponsored by Miss Palfreyman, took up the study of one of the world's most difficult languages. The members found it interesting to read about the ancient civilizations and the Latin speaking population that has long since died away. Because of the prodigious amount of concentration required by these studies, the Latin Club was unable to hold meetings or engage in other activities.

Advised by Mr. Calder and Mr. Campos, these avid French students shared club experiences which were suggested by their common interests. The members of this club developed more fluent speech of French and learned better social behavior of both their native and French cultures.

German Club

Somewhat taken aback by a mid-year change of sponsors, the German club did well in spite of the switch. Mr. Jared Suess was accepted warmly by the group of Deutschers. With the leadership of Doug Paxton, Ted Whitaker, and Sharon Green, the German Club was one of the most active foreign language clubs at Granger this year.

Left to Right, Row One: A. Hart, J. Beal, Sharon Green, Doug Paxton, Ted Whitaker, J. Clark, C. Lish, C. Johnson, Mr. Jared Suess, sponsor. Row Two:

L. Bulkley, C. Tripp, M. Clark, J. Rizzuto, D. Hofeling, L. Peterson, E. Warner, D. Tegmeyer. Row Three: G. Clark, C. Parmalee, J. Tice, G. Wilden, D. Paxton, B. Badham, S. Barrett.

The Drama Club went through the year with a clear desire for acting. They explored many phases of acting as both spectators and participants. President, Floyd George, and sponsor, Mrs. Brenda Siddoway, encouraged these ambitious students to further pursue the art of acting.

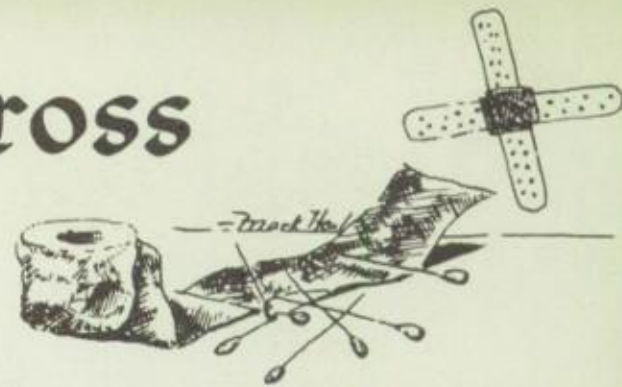

Left to Right, Row One: C. Douglas, C. Rooney, M. McGinnis, S. Savage, J. Shelby, L. Bonham, J. Weatherbie, Mrs. Siddoway, sponsor. Row Two: K. Thompson, F. Gerlach, D. Isackson, C. Parmelee, R. Hill, E. Warner. Row Three: C. Jensen, S. McCleary, N. Sprinkel, C. Unthank, W. Case, Mike Ernten.

Debate Team

"Resolved: That nuclear weapons should be controlled by an international organization" was debated pro and con by the debate team. With this question, the team gained valuable knowledge while bringing honorable recognition to our school. Debate manager Sandi Savage, scheduled meets with schools throughout the state.

Red Cross

Carrying forth the National Red Cross theme, "All are Brothers," Granger's Red Cross Club was headed by Sid Withers, president, and Mrs. Gustafson, sponsor. This club performed many services for the community, directed a Red Cross drive, and filled a good-will chest.

The wind rushing by them, the powder flying, and the thrill of zooming down a mountainside were some of the sensations experienced by our Ski Club. Led by John Hunt, the ski club could be found on the ski slopes at least once a week, not only skiing, but also having fun.

The Mystic Circle

This exclusive club was made up of the very elite of Granger High. Their outstanding contributions added an air of mystery and intrigue to these Hallowed Halls. Their names are not yet revealed due to the secrecy of their valued work. Around the council circle, earth-shaking decisions were reached by these wizards.

HONORS

Dear Tracy:
 You've got a real great personality, and you're a real doll.
 Lots of luck in your future. May Sol bless you and keep you.
 A friend always Randi Crabtree

The unknown has been conquered, the quest for adventure has been realized, and the bleak has been banished. Alone and together, a small number of Lancers did their utmost in completing the year's tasks. These few, having been bequeathed titles of recognition, gained a small "thank you" for the work which they have done. Excellence in scholarship was gained solely through hard work and perseverance, as there was no shaman to lead the way. Slowly, and only after years of constant devotion, greatness was achieved in the performing arts. Athletic fame came only to those who worked many hard and sometimes difficult hours practicing and sharpening their skills. In the completion of their tasks, they made the world brighter than before. We therefore dedicate this section to them, the few who have done so much for so many.

Welcome . . .

Granger High School proudly welcomes Mr. Moroni L. Jensen, our new principal. Mr. Jensen, who has been in education for more than twenty years, began his career with Granite District in 1952. Besides being principal of Granger, he has been the administrator of Valley Junior High, of Cyprus High, and of many elementary schools. Mr. Jensen feels that the teenager of today is as good as, if not better than, the teenager of yesterday. Firm, friendly, and frank is his policy for governing students. We are honored and privileged to have Mr. Jensen.

Tracy,
It's been a real pleasure in call you Joni half the time - I did you the best of luck in your future - always

Girls' State

The Girls' State representatives were first recommended by their social studies teachers, elected by the student body girls, and selected by the Women's Auxiliary of the American Legion. The girls were chosen to participate in a mock state legislature for one week during the summer at Utah State University. While they functioned as representatives and officials of a state government, they participated in many memorable activities including talent nights, campaign assemblies, elections, and lectures.

Boys' State

Granger's Boys' State representatives of 1964 were recommended by their history teachers and chosen by the American Legion. Such attributes as intellect, leadership, and citizenship enabled them to function successfully in the offices of a mock state government. Through this experience the boys learned of the intricacies of state government by listening to lectures, participating in elections, and making government decisions. A gala graduation dance on July Fourth added a bewitching note to an unforgettable experience.

Outstanding player and high scorer for Granger's basketball team.

Dramatic Honors

Left to Right: C. Johns, L. Davidson, B. Davidson, S. Savage, N. Sprinkel.

Many extra hours of time were devoted to preparing and memorizing materials for contest work. These students displayed their skill in dramatics and their willingness to achieve fame for Granger High.

Forensic Honors

Left to Right, Row One: L. Bonham, J. Shelby, S. Savage. Row Two: F. Gerlach, N. Sprinkel, B. Arganbright, M. Ernten.

Participating in debate, oratory, extemporaneous speaking, and legislative forum, these students brought honor to themselves. They entered contests all over the state, and brought recognition to our school with each contest. The student body can be proud of the way Granger High was represented by these students.

Left to Right: D. Hornock, N. Sprinkel, M. Ernten, J. Shelby.

Scholastic Honors

These twenty seniors rated as top scholars for 1965 and will be awarded Honors At Entrance at the University of Utah. From these students emerged energetic officers for many organizations. They represented Granger at various regional activities and gained recognition for themselves and their school through imagination and effort.

ATHLETICS

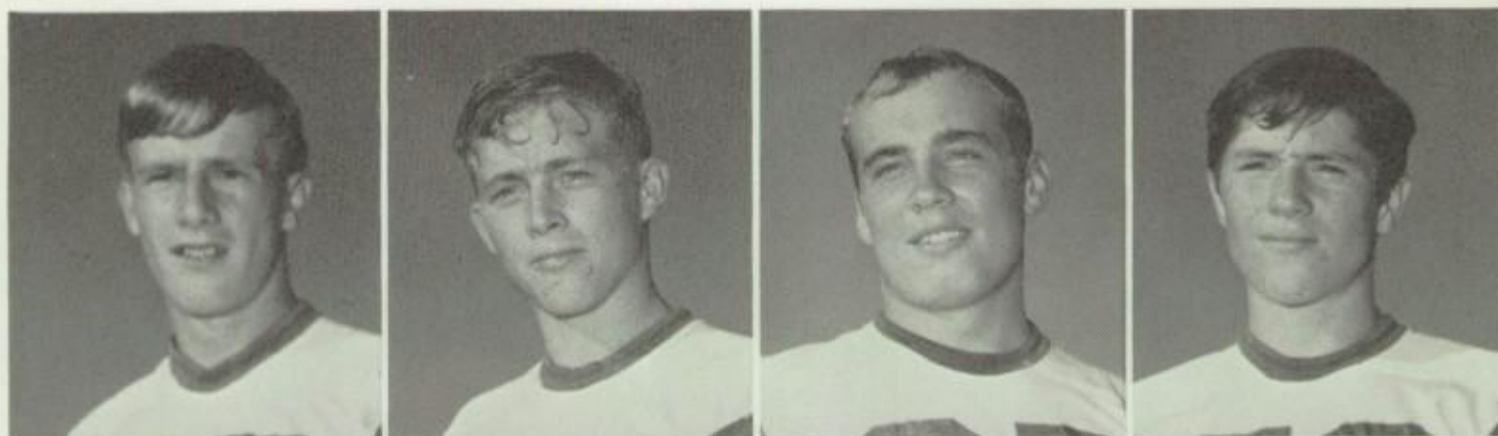

Athletics added the spirit of participation. From the football field to the baseball diamond, and from the high dive to the discus throw, sports demonstrated the power of Granger. Despite defeats, our mighty strength was shown time and time again. Because of the great success by our athletes, our school gained recognition for its outstanding record.

Excellent coaching and steadfast endurance brought Granger High the best record in the past five years. Coach Jay Rasmussen took this year's ample material and, with the magic of experience, formed and put Granger's best foot forward into triumph. Their unconquered spirit carried them into the realms of victory.

Junior Varsity

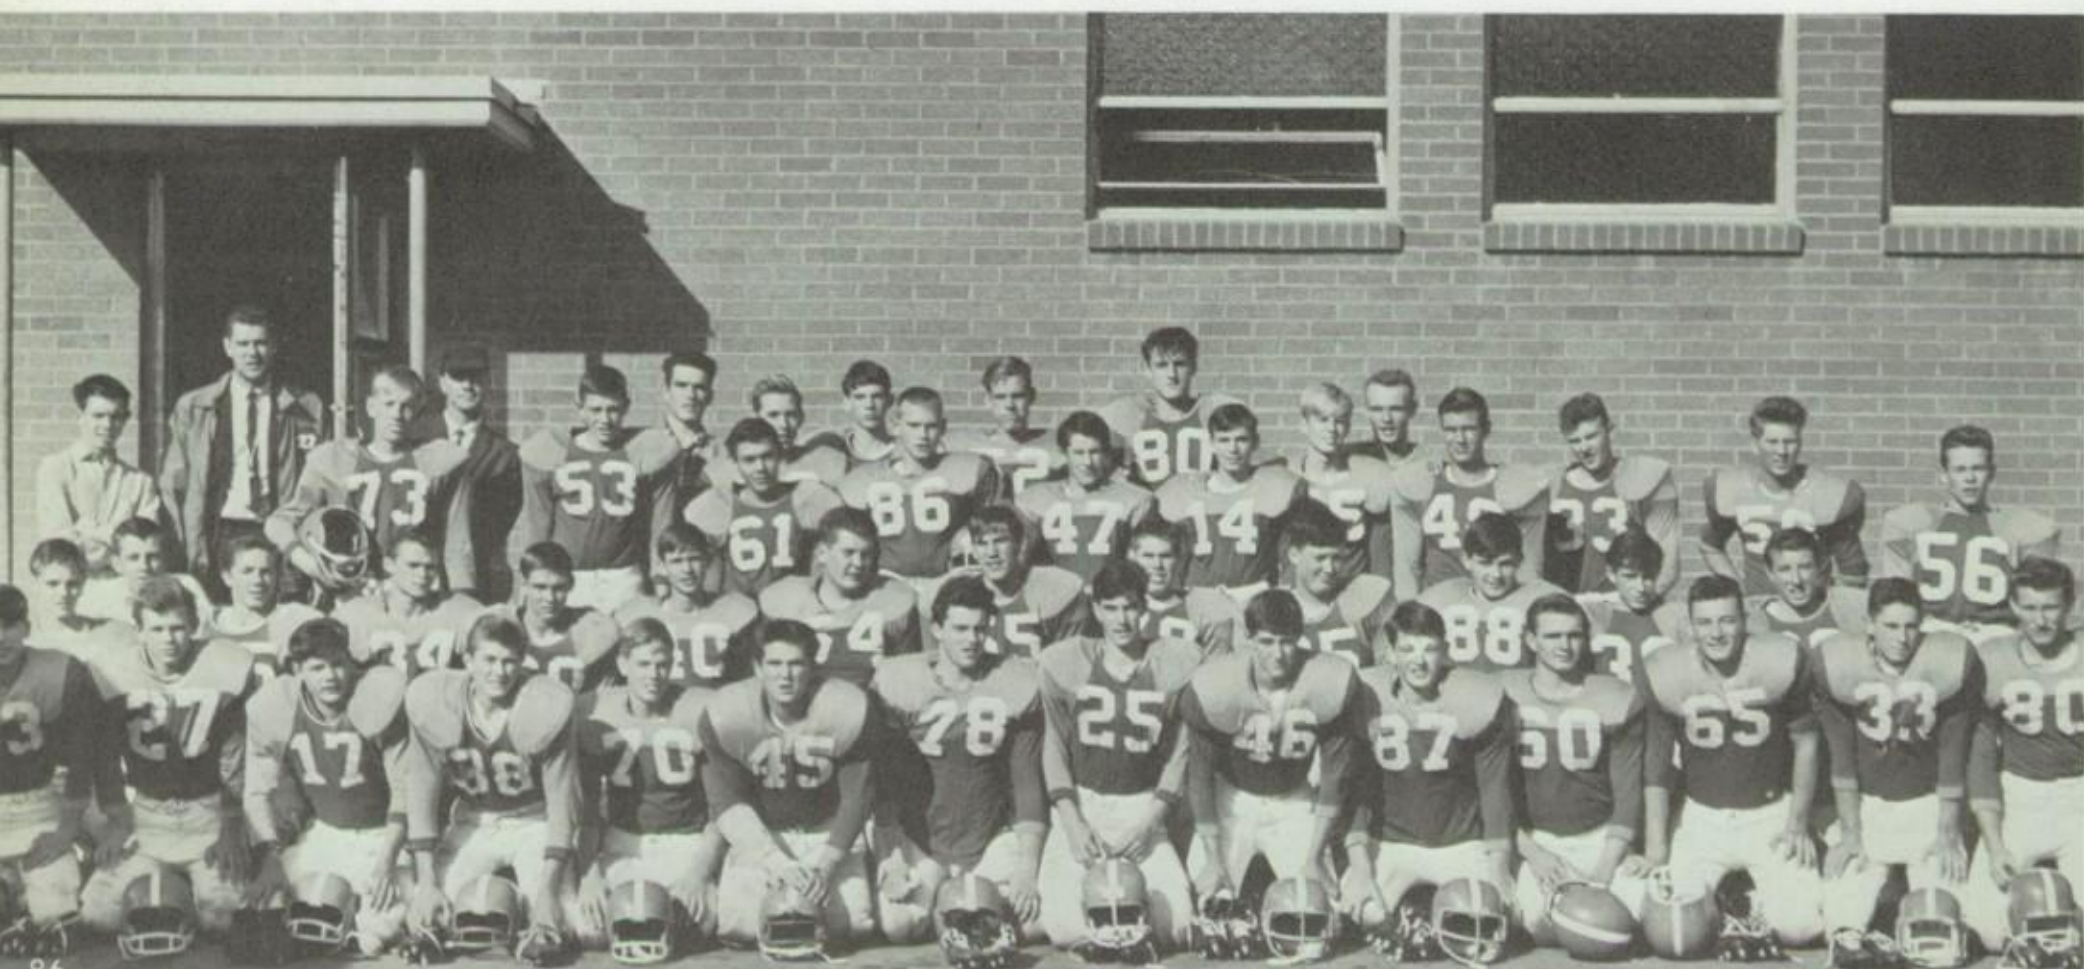

Although the sophomore's football debut could not be called triumphant, the experience and know-how instilled in these young men is far more valuable than numbers on a scoreboard. They developed stamina and a knowledge of true sportsmanship. Coaches Bob Bliss and Loren Burton are extremely proud of how the sophomores evolved through the various stages of training.

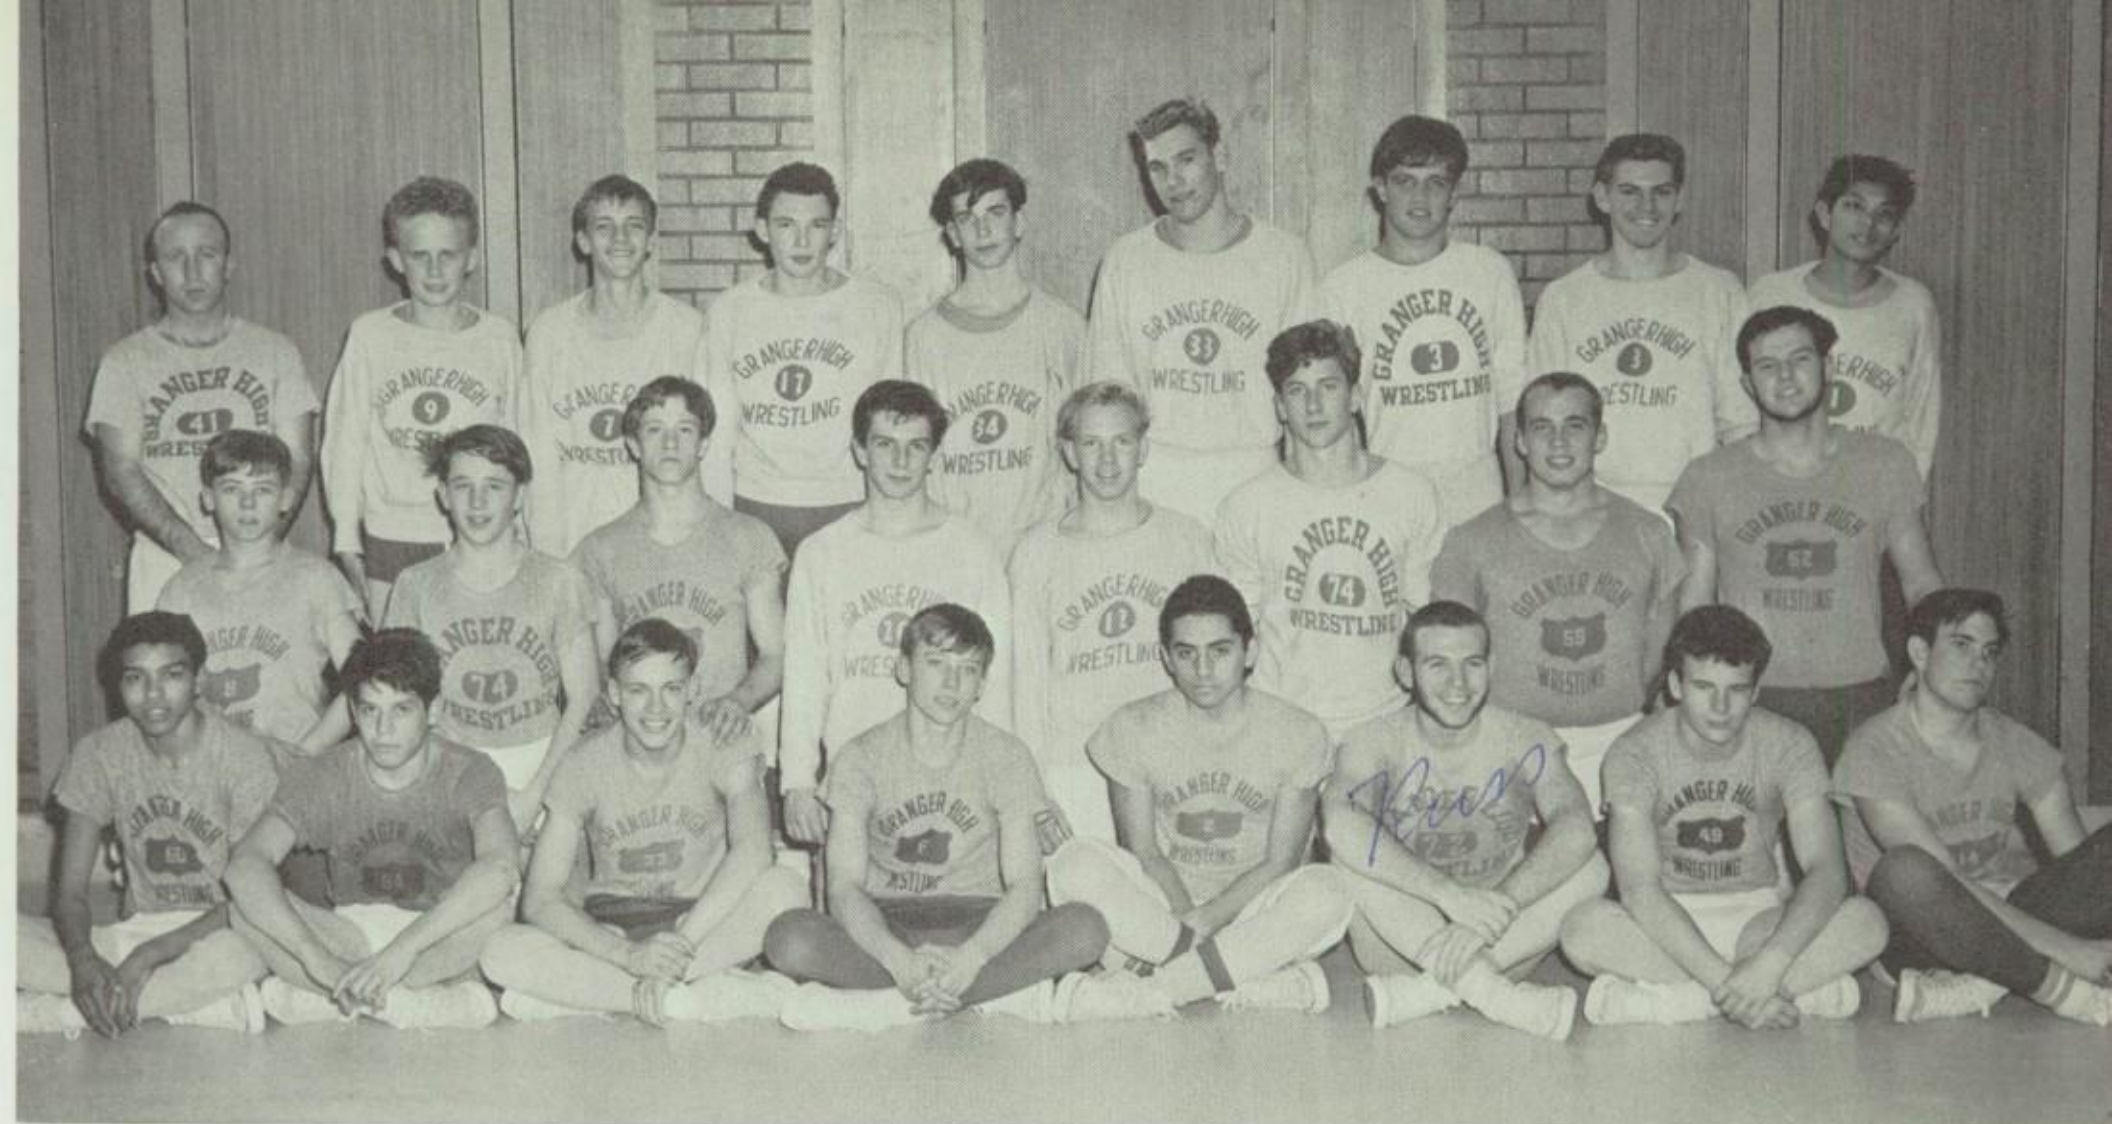

Left to Right, Row One: Tom Rogers, Danny Starr, Gary Free, George Schmidt, Don Whitworth, Don Fell, Shaun Allen, Roland Turpin, Ted Angus, Doug Isackson, Ken Breeze, Steve Mackay, Ron Mendenhall, Tom Stark. Row Two: Ken Thompson, Calvin Cravin, Jack McCan, Arwin Allred, Mondel Jensen, Greg Moss, Fred Griffiths, Dean Symons, Bruce Hurd, Brent Larson, Ken Dent,

The Junior Varsity football team of '64-'65 provided the depth necessary to make a good team great. Their steadfast backing of the Varsity pulled many games from the jaws of defeat. Indeed, Coach Bob Radford and his J.V.'s have good reason to be proud of their accomplishments.

Sophomores

Left to Right, Row One: Chris Sterling, Ben Munoz, Mack Clark, Mike Dangerfield, Gerald Ulibarri, Russel Abney, Lee Patton, Elwin Mangus Row Two: Allen Dangerfield, Ken Patterson, Ron Woodward, Bob Cook, Mike Linstrom,

Wrestling

A combination of perfect muscle tone and quick thinking are the makings of a good wrestler. Under the experienced guiding and training of Coach Ralph Christensen, such qualities were developed and utilized in the name of Granger High. Our boys met and conquered many opponents in many events. Their stamina and know-how has made Granger very proud of them. Congratulations on a good, hard-fought season.

Front: Coach Christensen. Back: Team Captains Frank Knaus, Keith Bergstrom.

Bob Brierly

Basketball

Carrying out Granger's court tradition, this year's Varsity squad charged down the court for basket after basket. Headed by Coach Snow, the Lancers were led to the very pinnacle of the State Championship, only to be fouled by an electronic nemesis which spirited the taste of victory from their very lips.

Sophomore Team

The Sophomore and Junior Varsity teams acquired the magic of experience, before which all foes must eventually fall. The stamina and finesse developed by these athletes shall stand them in good stead during the '65-'66 season. Granger is now provided with an heir to her outstanding court record.

Merv Arnold, Doug Hatch. Row Three: Trent Harrison, John Rush, Robert Jenkel, Ken Nelson, Dave Fackrell, Burt Brazier, Kenny Breeze, Darrel Prows.

This year's swimming team got off with a splash. Our team, in spite of a definite lack of water, had five men go to the State Finals where two men placed, Trent Harrison in the 200 and 400 yard dashes and Ken Nelson in diving.

The team has been called the most successful team in Granger's history! "100% improvement over last year's team," commented Coach Henry Bawden. The season's end exclamation is still . . . "I wish we had a pool at Granger!"

Coach Henry Bawden

Baseball

The diamond club of Granger High School, in carrying out a tradition of baseball supremacy, has strengthened the reputation and respect of our school. Through the jovial, but strict, guidance of Coach Steinke, the team rapidly whipped itself into shape and was quick to get on the diamond and in the news.

The athletic scenes familiar to ancient Greece could be seen on the Track and Field of Granger High this fall. Perfect muscle tone and enduring stamina were developed here in the midst of hot sun and moist brows. Each time muscles strained, they brought themselves that much closer to victory and the chance of breaking a record. As the Track team of '65 saw many school records fall before their efforts, it was then that their hours of grueling workouts took a tangible form.

Tennis

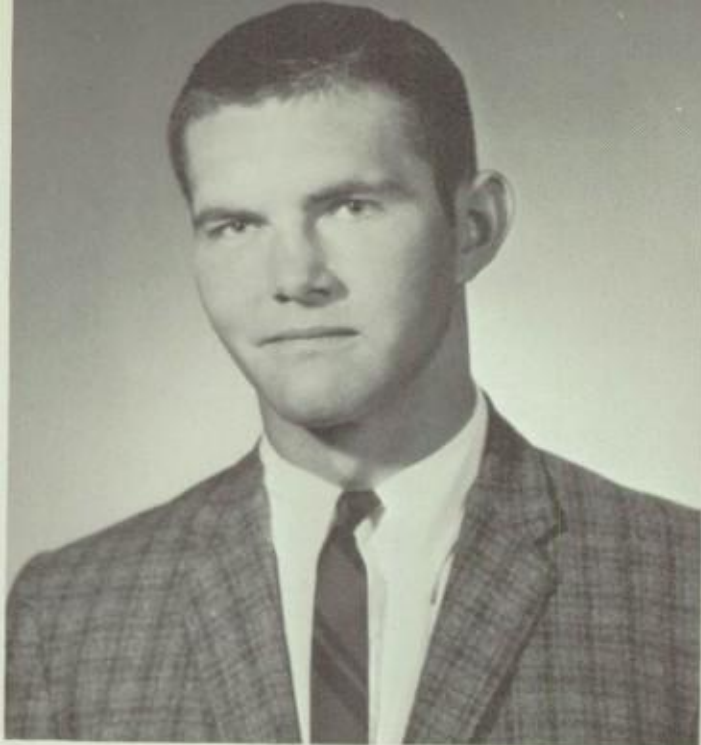

Led into action by Coach Ralph Christensen, the Racketeers of Granger High proudly carried their rackets onto the courts of competition, defeating their competitors and then sailing over the net in a wave of victory to shake the hands of their conquered opponents. Beginners and veterans alike proudly carried on the victorious tradition of Granger High.

Golf

"Turf's up!" bellowed the Granger Golf team, and multitudes of putts rolled across the green. Followed closely by Coach Schmidt, the team crept, stealthily across the greens and roughs in pursuit of the wiley golf ball. The Golf team of '65 competed with many teams around the valley and by the very virtue of the game, developed patience and good sportsmanship.

Coaches

Granger High was in the athletic spotlight this year, due largely to the guiding influence of these excellent coaches.

Healthy and willing attitudes were instilled in our youthful athletes through sportsmanship and vigorous training. Supervised by these wizards of fitness, the individual athletic programs each accomplished their tasks of building men.

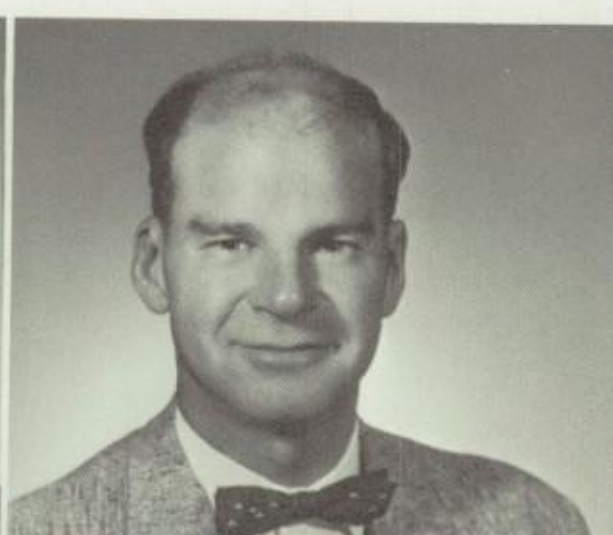

Thanks to their experience with these gentlemen, young athletic minds and bodies, were molded into energetic and dynamic men of great potential.

CLASSES

In a sudden magic moment the ominous future softens its light, radiating hope and anticipation. The lively beams dance playfully on monuments of the past. Fears, failures, and disappointments are buried here, but fond memories linger still. The excitement of a great victory won . . . the rising chorus of our Alma Mater . . . the mystic music of the Junior Prom . . . the joy and sorrow of Graduation; together, will be remembered forever in the minds of their creators, All Granger Lancers.

The light of the future beckoned and the Seniors grasped its rays.
 Heightened by warm bonds of friendship the class of '65 helped mold a wondrous year. Tom Rich, president; Ted Whitaker, vice-pres-

 Bob Edmunds, Round Table Representative; led the Seniors as they conquered ignorance and obtained success. These days of being part of Granger High became immortal moments engraved forever in the cherished Book of Memories.

Junior Class

Trying to make the most of an already great year, the Junior Class did their best to promote enthusiasm and scholastic achievement. They set a lasting mood with their Junior Assembly that carried along through the ever great Junior Prom. With the help of their officers, Dale Barker, Suzette Schugk, Carleen Bennett, and Judy Covington, the Juniors created a captivating year.

Sophomore Class

Gaining experience and leadership, the Sophomore class captivated the wizardry of learning. Led by Bill Kirk, President, and Becky Davidson, Vice-president, the "sophs" provided many fun and exciting events. Kitty Norton, Secretary, and Barbara Morrison, Historian, joined the other officers in setting the pace for the year's activities.

Tracy, all this time I
 After you found out you really sweat and for breaking me up
 I tried to work
 the snack bar. I had a friend who was always there to help me out and thanks to him I was able to do it all the way through
 day

Hi Tracy,
You have added much to my senior year. Stay as sweet as you are now.

Luck always,
Rayleen

Hi Tracy
I realize you are one of the funniest and cutest girls
I know. Be good and don't forget me,
Pat Albertson

Hi Tracy
It sure was fun having English and you, the

Dear Tracy
We are enjoyed these last few years. I hope you go a long life. We are around like you around
Ron Nelson

Tracy,
you are really a sweet girl. I had fun in English with you, the luck in the future don't forget me

Dear Tracy - well
Don't get too dark
this summer, be good.
I've really enjoyed your spirit in French, we've had lots of fun.

Dear Tracy,
This year has been the greatest year we have had, I have really enjoyed all the things
we have done together
walking around the morning before church, starting coming to church together and telling about it. I know I'll see you soon. I know summer and I know you will have a fast and happy Easter, and you'll have a very best very kind year.
Love always
Tracy
